

PRESS RELEASE

New entry for Indosuez Wealth Management in Italy
Enrico Vergani joins the commercial team led by Bonaventura Canino

Milan, 13 June 2024 - Indosuez Wealth Management in Italy, the global brand of the Crédit Agricole Group's Wealth Management division dedicated to HNWI and UHNWI clients, announces the arrival of Enrico Vergani in the role of Senior Wealth Manager and Head of North West Area for the Italian market.

Enrico Vergani will oversee the commercial development of this area with a focus on the Large Wealth segment, further strengthening the network of professionals led by Indosuez Wealth Management's Chief Executive Officer in Italy Bonaventura Canino.

Enrico Vergani is a professional with over 25 years of experience in advising national and foreign investors on liquid and illiquid assets. He started his career in London at Banca IMI, then returned to Milan where he worked at UBS and Merrill Lynch. In 2014 he joined Mediobanca (formerly Banca Esperia) in the division that looks after the interests of private clients.

In the course of his career, he combined financial advisory activities with commitments on the boards of various companies and collaborations with Italian and foreign universities, also participating in the publication of several texts on financial statement analysis and ESG.

He is a Certified International Investment Analyst - CIIA, and holds a degree in Business Administration from the Università Luigi Bocconi of Milan.

Bonaventura Canino, General Manager of Indosuez Wealth Management in Italy, declares: "I am delighted to welcome Enrico to our team. This arrival is part of our wealth management business development strategy in Italy and represents an important boost for the growth of our business, particularly in the North West Area. Thanks to his experience, which joins that of our teams, Indosuez further accelerates the development of the Italian structure, confirming the focus on the HNWI and UHNWI client segment for which it is able to offer a complete and global service, thanks to its international network and that of the Crédit Agricole Group".

Mario Buquicchio, Deputy General Manager and in charge of the HR, Marketing, Investment Solutions and Business & Client Service areas of Indosuez Wealth Management in Italy, adds: "Enrico's arrival further reinforces the choice of the model we have adopted and are continuing to implement, a business model through which we want to present ourselves to Italian entrepreneurs with authoritative contacts on the territory, able to combine the professionalism and personalisation typical of a "boutique" with access to a broad and integrated service platform of a large international group".
